ILLEGAL USE OF CDC LOGO TO SELL BOTTLED PALM OIL

The Management of the Cameroon Development Corporation, CDC, informs the general public that some unscrupulous individuals are illegally using the CDC Logo to package and market their palm oil both locally and out of Cameroon.

This illegal act violates the Corporation's proprietary rights as well as tends to taint her reputation and brand name.

While the Management of the Corporation will take all necessary action to bring perpetrators of such illegal acts to book, the public is hereby called upon to be vigilant.

Let it also be known that the CDC does not export Palm Oil.
